- 12 weeks

Trinity Church is looking to hire a summer intern with a passion for all things NextGen. As a summer intern you will work closely with the NextGen team to assist in the execution of Trinity Kids programming on Sundays, our epic week of Summer Stuff camp for 250+ kids and volunteers, family experiences, and more!. We are looking for someone that is passionate about working together to encourage growth, connection, and discipleship within our church community.

The NextGen Summer Intern will:

- Work closely with the Summer Stuff Lead to execute intentional programming for children ages 3-12 in one weeklong day camp experience.
- Play a key role during the week of Summer Stuff from July 24-28 to provide overall leadership of specific components throughout each day.
- Help encourage and foster relationship building between parents, volunteers, kids, and staff.
- Be a strong team player who can easily adapt, is eager to learn, and passionate about helping in anyway they can.
- Buy into the vision of the NextGen team and Trinity Church and execute daily tasks with the goal of meeting that vision.
- Attend all NextGen summer training sessions, prep days, debrief meetings, etc.
- Other tasks may include more specifics such as tech, environment, administration, communications, volunteer recruitment, SLP leadership, and more.

PROTECTION SCREENING

All applicants will be required to complete a Criminal Record Check, Post open until filled.
